

Living Out Scripture

What do we mean by “live out scripture?” Simply to take life instruction from Scripture and practically follow those instructions in our daily lives. Simple, not easy.

We want to provide you an opportunity to not just take in Scripture by reading it or hearing it, but to live out scripture as well. To be “doers of the word, not just hearers.” (James 1:22)

This week, we invite you to choose one of the Scriptures listed below and begin to live that out in your life.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. – Matthew 5.16

Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. – Luke 6.27-28

...whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. – John 14.12-13

Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver – 2 Corinthians 9.7

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. – Galatians 6.9-10

Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. – James 5.16

- 1 Take a moment to read these verses. Is there one that is calling to you? Is the Holy Spirit directing you to one or the other?
- 2 Once you’ve selected one, take a few minutes to meditate on the scripture.
- 3 Now, write down some things you could practically do this week to follow this teaching. It might be helpful to save your scripture and return to it often.
